2 Financing Graduate Education

There are different ways to finance graduate studies at McGill University. A graduate student can:

- 1) win a fellowship from an external granting agency;
- 2) win an internal McGill Graduate Fellowship;
- 3) win a McGill departmental or faculty award;
- 4) obtain a stipend from their supervisor's research grant or contract;
- 5) receive funding in the form of loans and bursaries from the federal or provincial government;
- 6) receive a differential fee waiver for the international fee supplement.

In 2001-02, graduate students received over $6 million in McGill fellowships and $4.6 million in salaries. They also attracted approximately $10 million in fellowship funding from Canadian and Quebec Government sources, as well as $1.4 million in differential fee waivers for international students from the Quebec government. Over $13 million from research grants and contracts was devoted to graduate student support. Preliminary estimates indicate that over $4 million in fellowships was obtained through other external sources.

1) External Granting Agency Fellowships are listed in section 3, "External Fellowships". Currently, the value of awards offered by these agencies (including those supported by the Canadian and Quebec governments) varies from approximately $15,000 to $21,000 per year. Many may be renewed. Application deadlines for the majority of external granting agency fellowships fall during October to November, for fellowships tenable in September of the following year. Fellowships offered by external granting agencies for postdoctoral level study and research are described in section 7, "Postdoctoral Fellowships".

Embassies, consulates and commissions of foreign countries located in Canada also are excellent sources of information on funding opportunities for students intending to study abroad. Addresses and telephone numbers of all diplomatic representatives in Canada can be obtained from the Department of External Affairs in Ottawa at (613) 996-4376. For McGill students seeking funding for graduate study outside Canada, the graduate awards offices of foreign universities themselves are often the best source of information. The McLennan Library has a vast collection of foreign university catalogues. The French embassy in Ottawa has a complete Web site on France-Canada exchange programs at <http://ambafrance-ca.org/HYPERLAB/FFCR/index.html> under "l'aide-mémoire des échanges scientifiques franco-canadiens".

McGill University has signed a number of agreements with universities in other countries, many of which include a student exchange component. As a member of the Conference of Rectors and Principals of Quebec Universities (CREPUQ), McGill also participates in a number of student exchange programs with designated universities in the United States and Europe. Further information on such programs may be obtained from the Student Exchange Officer, Admissions, Recruitment and Registrar's Office, James Building Annex, McGill University. Tel: (514) 398-8342.
